

LIGHT AND PRAY

Focused Prayer for the Front Line

These are some of the frontline prayer requests. This list is not exhaustive. Remember to pray for those who aren't named, who we don't even know, who are sacrificially doing the work to keep us safe.

Natasha S. - I am a travel nurse venturing all over America with my husband, 2 kids, & dog in our 5th wheel RV. We say we are "Nursing Our Travel Bug". I'm presently working at Renown here in Reno until the end of June. I've been in healthcare for 15 years, 8 of those as a nurse. It's my calling to serve God's people by bringing them peace & comfort as a nurse.

Lori M. - I work as an Occupational therapist in the hospital. I am not working the covid unit but working with co workers who do, and working to get other hospital patients home safely. I join with praying every night when I see my light in the window.

Laurie C. - She is a nurse at Carson Tahoe hospital and a long time attendant of Grace Church. In honor of celebrating nurses week this week, I would love the church to rally behind her and all of our nurses on the front lines and pray and lift them up.

Marci H. - Matthew is my youngest and is a CNA at Renown Hospital

Mary works at Boston medical center on a Covid floor, Hollis works in Pittsburgh in an ICU and Catherine is a physician and works in OBGYN in Pittsburgh. Please pray for God's protection over them from the coronavirus.

Heather O. - Heather provides direct patient care in an acute care medical center in So Cal.

Elizabeth T. - Elizabeth and her friend are nurses at Renown working tirelessly with compassion and courage. I'm a very proud mom!

Tim H. - He works at the VA hospital screening drive-up patients, currently. His unit has been temporarily re-purposed to handle COVID demands.

Shannon S. - Shannon is a speech therapist and has been working with patients to re-learn how to swallow after they are taken off respirators.

Liz S. - I'm a Personal Care Assistant for the Elderly. Helping elderly population that require daily everyday help in their home or Assisted Living~cooking cleaning feeding medication reminders personal shopper companionship.

Christina L. - Christina works for Lakeside Health and Wellness.

Sage C. - Please pray for my sister. She is an ICU nurse at New York-Presbyterian Hospital.

Molly M. - I do senior care for an 80 year old lady in her home.

Tim H. - I'm a Nursing Assistant, working at the Reno VA hospital - I'm an Air Force veteran myself. I'm at the front entrance, screening all the patients...

Kimi F. - Her son in law, Eric, who is a police officer in Fairfield CA. Also for her and her daughter who work at Panasonic, where there's been confirmed cases of covid.

Tina M. - Please pray for me and my children. We are all essential workers. I am a nurse, on the frontlines every day. Thank you.

Grace N. - Grateful she still has a job and is able to work but she is exposed. She is helping with the pick up for the school work for all of the students and is in contact with many people. Pray for her protection. Maggie is asking for prayer for her granddaughters in the healthcare industry. One granddaughter, Hilary, in an OB/GYN at St. Mary's, and Carli is a lab tech at Renown South.

Shawnie G. - Pray for myself, I'm a teacher and I have more work than I would normally have in the classroom, having to work through technology and to make that easier for me and fewer hours.

Bret C. - Please pray for our daughter, Katie and our son-in-law, Trevor. They both go to Grace and are nurses at Renown. Please pray that I will have the wisdom to lead my Rooted group which starts "virtually" next week. It will be a new thing for everyone.

Gina M. - Kylie Soares is back at work. Working with COVID patients and being a rock star herself. Remember when we were praying for her when she either had the Coronavirus or pneumonia. God healed her.

Pray for Audrey, a nurse, and Alan, a firefighter

Pray for law enforcement.

Pray for those working in the food industry. Delivery drivers, grocers, suppliers.

Anonymous: Please pray for Liz. She is a nurse who was just diagnosed with COVID.

Joni M. - We, as teachers, are now finding some of our families dealing with deaths, emotional issues, sadness, etc. Please pray for all of us to have the right words of comfort, the wisdom to know what to say and when to say nothing-just listen- and when to completely step back for a period.

Pam D. - I am an inpatient pharmacist at the VA

Melissa A. - Works in the adolescent care unit at a behavioral hospital. The staff there have little PPE available to them, most staff provide their own while working 12hr shifts. Please pray for her strength, health, and safety. She truly works in the lions den and it takes its toll on her.

Janet M. - Please pray for our son in law Marc, who is a doctor and works in a hospital in North Carolina Also, please pray for our daughter Lisa, who lives here and is a Psychotherapist and sees patients.

Cheryl D. - Her granddaughter, Maddie, is working as a nurse on the infectious and communicable disease in Pennsylvania, and she is handling COVID patients.

Lauren Dabb & Kevin Carlton - Lauren works in the Trauma Intensive Care Unit at Renown as a nurse. Her boyfriend, Kevin is also on the frontlines, he is a police officer. They are both on the frontlines and really appreciate prayer from our church family! Thank You.

Heather F. - Since all of this started, and I was laid off from my main job, I started working at Raley's on Robb Drive. I felt like it was a way to help the community. I do E-Cart in-store. What that job entails is me basically doing someone's grocery shopping that has been ordered on-line. I am constantly within a foot of someone else if we are passing each other in the aisle with our carts side by side.

Joan S. - I'm a registered nurse at Sutter Roseville Medical Center in Roseville, California.

Marlena S. - I'm a labor and delivery nurse at a local hospital. I really appreciate prayer!!

Todd S. - I'm a Physician Assistant at Northern Nevada Emergency Department; My wife Erika is a PA on the Hospitalist team at our hospital, too.

Marisa W. - Nursing Facility Administrator.. In my 15+ years in Long Term Care industry have evacuated 3 facilities for Hurricanes, but COVID is different and harder b/c of the length of time patients and families have not seen their loved ones (other than through technology and windows) then add the fear of the virus affecting patients and staff.

Travis B. - I'm a Captain for Reno Fire Department. We've been responding to more and more covid related emergencies.

Riley C. - My husband is a trooper for Nevada Highway Patrol. He still has to come into contact with people. I pray the people don't have Covid-19

Amy B. - My husband Spencer is a Sheriff's Deputy for Plumas County. We're a tight-knit community and I am so grateful for the safety of our local Law Enforcement Officers!

Morgan, Lauren and Madeline - Please be praying for my team in the trauma ICU! We are working hard to combat COVID 19 and all the stresses that come along with it.
